

CHARLENE WHEELLESS

INTRODUCTION

Prepare to be inspired by our esteemed keynote speaker, Charlene Wheelless. Charlene is a globally recognized speaker who empowers professionals with her transformative keynote address, "Soar to be Seen." Her dynamic stage presence, honed during her time as an NFL cheerleader, captivates audiences around the world. Charlene's thought-provoking TEDx talk, "CHOICE NOT CHANCE!" and other presentations provide actionable strategies for overcoming workplace challenges and making life-changing decisions.

With a wealth of experience as a former C-suite executive and working with industry giants like IBM, Google, and Lockheed Martin, Charlene's insights have been showcased in prestigious publications such as Forbes and Business Insider, as well as featured on ABC and Fox News. As a member of Marshall Goldsmith's 100 Coaches and with certifications from Georgetown University and the ICF, she is a respected leader in her field. Charlene's impact is further validated by her numerous accolades, including being recognized as a "Woman Worth Watching" and one of the "25 Influential Black Women in Business."

Her best-selling book, "You Are Enough," chronicles her personal journey and serves as a testament to her role as a catalyst for growth and transformation in both leadership and personal development.

Get ready to be uplifted and empowered with Charlene Wheelless as your guide.