

Saundra Pelletier is a passionate public speaker, life coach, executive coach and author, who specializes in helping individuals and organizations realize their full potential in business, life, sales and relationships. Saundra, has experienced, first-hand, the rise through the corporate ladder from the perspective of a powerful and ambitious woman, becoming a tenured business executive with exceptional achievements and success in numerous organizations. After years of developing her own seminars, privately coaching dozens of clients and speaking at select corporate engagements, Saundra Pelletier has branched out to share her message with organizations and corporations nationwide.

While always inspirational, Saundra Pelletier is known for delivering serious content and useful take away points. Her motto Never Confuse Motion With Action!™ is a necessity in today's workplace where work is often confused with results, and efficient, smart action is more important than ever before. Saundra's varied presentations, seminars and coaching sessions have helped thousands learn to take their lives in their own hands, and produce the results they desire for themselves.

As a Corporate Vice President, global franchise leader at Fortune 500 companies including GD Searle and Monsanto, and a board member for global pharmaceutical companies, Saundra developed her skills in the corporate world and proved her ability to restructure an organization from the ground-up to produce better results and financial success. Some of her achievements in the corporate world include leading a $250 million franchise, and raising over $40 million in capital investments. Saundra has also distinguished herself by maintaining a position in the top 1% of a sales force of 1...
