Testimonials

"I want to thank you so much for a terrific program. American Express Business Development professionals are an extremely sophisticated and demanding group when it comes to training. They must get value for their time spent, and the training must be delivered in an excellent manner. You gave them both and then some...Larry, we would recommend you highly to anyone who is looking for a skilled presenter and facilitator to train business professionals and managers."

- Vice President, Establishment Services Division, American Express.

"Harley-Davidson dealers are a tough crowd to please. You speak their language, you address their issues, you do it with down-to-earth humor and energy - and they love you for it. ... Thanks for a great job."

- World-Wide Manager of Dealer Training, Harley-Davidson Motor Company.
