

Suzette Brawner stirs reality and humor for a mix of inspiration, motivation, and hard laughter. A southern girl who loves sweet tea and good friends, Suzette meets audiences, regardless of their ages or backgrounds, right where they are. Suzette has touched hearts and encouraged thousands to be real, untangle their lives, and focus on what matters most.

A conference and event speaker for corporate, university, church and civic events across the United States, the author of three books, a frequent radio guest, the wife of her college blind date, the mother of three married kids and Sue Sue to a gaggle of grandkids, keeps Suzette Brawner on the cutting edge of real life. Suzette was born and raised in Little Rock, Arkansas and is a graduate of the University of Arkansas. She and her husband, Jim, live in Branson, Missouri.

Testimonials

“Conference attendees loved Suzette’s easy-to-listen-to style. They were inspired and enriched as she adapted her material perfectly to touch each one in their professional pursuits.”
