☐ Joseph Grenny is one of the most skilled presenters we have had at the City of Eugene. He has the ability to normalize the challenges we all experience, touch people on an emotional level with his storytelling and challenge us to move forward and address those "crucial conversations" that are keeping us stuck whether at home or work. In a short time, Joseph Grenny's presentation at the Eugene author event kept people talking and learning long after he walked off the stage. The concepts resonated with participants. These skills become the foundation for feeling empowered to have difficult conversations. ☐
