

Jim Blanco has been in the business of examining signatures and uncovering fraud for 17 years. As one of only 150 Certified Forensic Document Experts in the US and Canada, Jim has been called upon to examine over 4,000 fraud cases around the globe. With this unique business background, Jim has become a highly sought after and accomplished speaker, author, consultant, and expert.

Whether in a keynote, seminar or workshop, Jim presents with high energy and amazing style, and provides every audience with tangible and actionable content. Jim has taken his unique area of expertise to a higher level by inspiring individuals and businesses to discover their “Personal Signature Life.” He combines a fascinating survey of fraud with vivid and compelling real life stories to deliver an inspirational message that equips businesses with a systematic survival guide to avoid financial loss.

Jim has authored the ground breaking books Business Fraud, Know it and Prevent It, and Identity Theft Prevention as well as handbooks, audio cassettes, and assessment tools. He is a regular contributor to national magazines on business loss prevention and a regular guest on national television and radio talk shows.
