

Francine Ward - lawyer, author, coach, professional speaker - helps people overcome the biggest obstacle in the way of their success - Themselves - one Esteemable Act at a time. Francine Ward uses her own compelling personal story of being a drug addicted, alcoholic prostitute with a 1% chance of survival, to show that regardless of where you come from or what your personal challenges may be, that anything is possible if you are willing to get out of your own way. Motivational speaker, life coach and attorney, Francine Ward has overcome obstacles most people would consider impossible. Francine Ward's life reads like a great American novel; the kind where the heroine overcomes incredible odds, and then turns around to help others do the same.

At fourteen, Francine Ward was a heroin addict and a practicing alcoholic - today she's over twenty years clean and sober. At eighteen, Francine Ward was a high school dropout who lived homeless on the streets of New York - today she's a graduate of Georgetown University Law Center and owns her own home in California. At twenty-one, Francine Ward was a prostitute selling her body to support her drug and alcohol habits - today she's a lawyer, a successful entrepreneur, a loving wife, and a twice-published author. At twenty-six, Francine Ward was hit by a car and told she'd never walk again - in her early forties, she ran two marathons.

At twenty-eight, Francine Ward was selfish, self-centered and self-absorbed - today her amazing life is about being of service to others. With the help of a powerful support group, tools for living, and a sincere willingness to do the Work, Francine Ward has found her way home. A successful lawyer, author, professional speaker, and self-esteem coach, Franc...
