

Marc Vahanian's coaching has been described as nothing short of "life changing." Whether you are looking to impact your organization, or impact your life, Marc's ability to deliver insightful, dynamic leadership coaching has proven to take organizations and leadership goals to new, elevated levels.

With over 25 years of experience and 30,000 coaching sessions in personal and professional client development, Marc's leadership education provides specific practices that help clients and organizations connect with their core values. Marc Vahanian's Leadership Program helps executives and their corporate team to identify their current challenges and concerns, re-define the immediate opportunities and goals, then reconnect and re-engage with the company mission with purpose, pride, and passion. His practical management training has been utilized by some of the world's most successful organizations and individuals, from presidents of major corporations to international celebrities.

Uniting a diverse background in multiple disciplines, Marc's standout leadership strategy helps leaders, teams, and organizations make decisions by focusing on two central principles: mood and narrative. By understanding your story within "Who you are" and "Where you are going," Marc makes sense of "What you are producing" and more importantly the tone with which you communicate that narrative to your customers, clients, and colleagues. The principles and practices within his leadership-learning forum include learning the language and intelligence of the body, which encourages developing sophisticated ways to build rapport, trust, and effective-partnering with clients and colleagues alike. As a culmination of this development, Marc helps leaders and organizations...

Marc Vahanian

Speech Topics

Sales

Peak Performance

Life Balance

Leadership

Communication Skills

Change

Testimonials

Marc is impressively effective at coaching a team through radical change.

- Vice President, Principal Health Group a division of Principal Financial Group.

 \square asked Marc if he was still in the life-saving business, because I need to have my life saved. \square

- Drew Carey.