

Imagine a speaker who provides inspiring, interactive programs filled with proven, research-based, relevant material and immediate takeaways. Visualize your audience energized and engaged. Award-winning, Las Vegas-based speaker Karen E. Purves M.A. has built a solid client base providing these results for over 19 years! Effective communication is essential for success. Equipped with some of the latest findings in affective neuroscience, Karen links what we say with others' emotional reactions. As a communications expert, Karen shares immediately usable tips for communication via email, phone and in person, both internally with staff or externally for customer service, sales and marketing.

Karen's engaging and witty style blends relatable personal stories, leading-edge research and proven solutions to impact your attendees so they can leave a program saying their time was truly well spent. An International Speaker, Karen knows how to connect with audiences as few others can. In mathematical form, Karen could be = Energizer® Bunny® + Tina Fey + Wikipedia.

In addition to being described as "one of the best" or "favorite" speakers of entire conferences dozens of times, other attendee comments include: "Refreshingly honest", "contagiously enthusiastic", "attention grabber and keeper", "breath of fresh air" and giving "real answers to real life".

Karen combines a Bachelor's Degree in Business, Master's Degree in Public Policy and over 25 years business experience along with extensive training at "The Second City" to leave audiences feeling energized, inspired and empowered. Karen also has the rare distinction of being a 3-time game show winner!
