Dale Yeager began his education as a Criminal Behavior Analyst in 1988. He has extensive training in criminal psychology, forensic psychology, sex crimes investigation, and crime scene forensics / procedures and domestic terrorism analysis. Mr. Yeager also had advanced training at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center from 2005 to 2008.

As a Criminal Behavior Analyst, Mr. Yeager has consulted on numerous criminal cases, including the first murder investigation of Jon Benet Ramsey.

For the past 15 years Mr. Dale Yeager has provided the security management training and security system redesign for the House of Blues / Live Nation Corporation, SBE Entertainment Group, Lucky Strike Entertainment and the Gaylord Hotel chain.

Since 1995 Mr. Yeager has trained over 100,000 local, state and federal law enforcement officers in crowd control and security management of live events at large scale arenas.

Mr. Yeager's research work on violence has been published in the:

FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin

"Profiling Violent Crimes" by Dr. Ronald Holmes [3rd Edition]

National Criminal Justice Reference Service – U.S. Department of Justice

Law Enforcement Technology

Mr. Yeager is a frequent expert with media outlets including a featured episode of Forensic Files "Bump and Run" Season 3, Episode 21 2002.

Mr. Yeager has lectured at many higher education institutions throughout the U.S. such as Drexel and Howard universities. Mr. Yeager is an instructor for the Neumann University Criminal Justice Program.

In 2002, Mr. Yeager was given a presidential appoi...

Dale Yeager

Speech Topics

Safety

Law

Human Resources

Fraud Prevention

Employee Retention

Education