

Herschel Walker is widely regarded as one of football's greatest running backs. He led the University of Georgia to victory in the Sugar Bowl on the way to an NCAA Championship. He capped a sensational college career by earning the 1982 Heisman Trophy. Herschel then spent twelve years in the NFL, where he rushed for more than eight thousand yards and scored sixty-one rushing touchdowns. Today, Herschel is a successful entrepreneur and the Founder & President of Renaissance Man Food Services, the largest certified minority-owned food company with offices in Siloam Springs, AR and Savannah, GA. RMFS brings quality poultry, pork and bakery products to the retail and food service marketplace. Additionally, Herschel is an outspoken advocate for mental health awareness. He is the author of Breaking Free, an account of the joys and hardships of his childhood to his remarkable college and professional career. His compelling story testifies to the strength of the human spirit and the ability to overcome challenges.

Herschel Walker currently lives outside of Dallas-Fort Worth, TX with his wife Julie and son Christian.

Testimonials

"It was the most exciting and humbling moment of my life. Herschel and Julie Walker are truly amazing people and we are forever thankful that they were with us last night. You have another huge supporter of the Walker family! The city of Atlanta fell in love with him for so many new reasons last night!"

- Event Chair, Feed My Lambs, Inc. .

"Herschel was stupendous!!! The audience was completely taken with him and our donors and executives who met with him were thoroughly impressed. He was charming, funny and an excellent storyteller. I would engage him again in a minute. Many thanks for your help in making this a wonderful event!"
