

Kenny Chapman is the highly acclaimed authority on helping people discover their true potential and experience powerful life transformations. His compelling teachings have inspired individuals worldwide to reshape their lives and organizations, creating lasting change and unparalleled success.

Kenny has used his entrepreneurial spirit to build and operate many successful businesses. He has dedicated himself to the study of personal development and leadership, becoming a well-respected expert, touring and speaking with prominent motivational guru Les Brown.

Author of the influential book, The Six Dimensions of C.H.A.N.G.E., and founder of The Chapman Companies, Kenny has created an extensive library of self-improvement tools and programs. His numerous audio and video products cover many diverse topics, including achievement, human potential, and life balance. Kenny uses his masterful storytelling ability and natural humor to consistently captivate his audiences and create a powerful, relevant, interactive experience. His energetic, charismatic style never fails to challenge, enlighten, and motivate his audiences through his action-based message of opportunity and potential. Constantly receiving the highest scores and accolades from clients and audience members alike, Kenny has mastered the art of customizing presentations that produce results for every organization and individual. Kenny's personalized keynotes and seminars are also favorites of meeting planners; his adaptability, accessibility, and meticulous attention to detail are second to none. 901-754-9404.

Kenny Chapman

Speech Topics

- Peak Performance
- Overcoming Adversity
- Leadership
- Innovation
- Change