

Judy Carter is that rare speaker who is not only laugh-out-loud funny, but has a thought-provoking and remarkably moving message that resonates with everyone who hears it.

In her eye-opening, side-splitting programs; she'll show your group how to transform problems into punchlines, resolve conflicts and build genuine camaraderie so that everyone will walk away with tools they can use immediately.

All of her keynotes are customized to your specific business or industry. Judy will work closely with you, gathering your facts, challenges, goals, plus even your acronyms! There's no doubt about it. If you're looking for humor with an on-target message that your people will take back to work (and then put to work!), you'll love Judy Carter.

To book Judy Carter call Executive Speakers Bureau at 901-754-9404.

Testimonials

"The way that you incorporated our specific work styles into your presentation really showed everyone how to "laugh their way out of stress," as well as deal with our differences with a sense of humor. Thanks to you, we are able to re-evaluate obstacles in our day-to-day lives with smiles on our faces."

- Healthcare Technology.

"All of our employees really enjoyed you. You were funny, funny funny as well as a great inspiration to many."

- Pacific Bell.

Judy Carter

Speech Topics

- Management
- Humor
- Entertainment
- Comedian

