

Karel Murray brings meaning to mayhem with her “nothing but the truth” approach to business and life. An accomplished author and humorist, Karel has made radio and tv appearances and she enjoys local, regional, and national publication of her articles. In addition to her first book Straight Talk: Getting Off the Curb, Karel is a featured author in Extreme Excellence: Dynamic Interviews with America’s Top 10 Performance Experts, and publishes a monthly newsletter—Think Forward!—to nearly 5,000 subscribers. Karel produces a weekly interview series called “Just for a Moment.” She is author of both The Profitability Blueprint Series and the CPR for Managers Series.

Karel holds a BA in Human Resources and has earned numerous designations and certifications, including the prestigious Certified Speaking Professional (CSP) from the National Speakers Association and the Distinguished Real Estate Instructor (DREI) from the national Real Estate Educators Association. Her resume includes experience as a human resources regional executive of a large commercial insurance firm, as an award winning sales person, as a manager of a top producing real estate office, and now as owner of Our Branch, Inc. and national and international speaking and training company.

She has received several awards for her community service, including the Blue Springs Missouri Chamber of Commerce Award, and once taught a pig named Nelson to jump rope . . . but that’s another story. She is a member of the National Speakers Association, Meeting Professionals International, and has as a Director and Officer on the national Board for the Real Estate Educators Association.

As a professional speaker, Karel has had the pleasure of connecting with audiences for...
