

Danita Patterson is founding president and principal content developer of Destiny Unlimited, Inc., a family entertainment company that develops innovative film, television and new media content. As a producer and writer, her production credits and development work over 22 years include more than 120 episodes of television programming for ABC, NBC, CBS, and Tribune Entertainment/WGN networks. Her diverse programming background has ranged from primetime sitcoms, annual award shows, musical specials, magazine and talk shows to game shows, public affairs programs, documentary films and feature films.

Prior to her entrepreneurial endeavors, Patterson worked closely with actor Will Smith and served as director of development and administrative manager for his company and The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air. She also served as programming consultant and producer for other celebrities and production companies, including consultant for Children's & Family Entertainment with actor/producer/director, Tim Reid; production work on singer/actress, Brandy's sitcom pilot, Thea, and producer for musical specials, including Christmas Glory Special, featuring gospel stars like Yolanda Adams, Kirk Franklin, Andre Crouch and the Winans. Patterson worked on national award shows and specials like the Stellar Awards, Celebrate The Soul of American Music, Family Night, featuring Gladys Knight and Nancy Wilson, and the Essence Awards.

Patterson recently produced the award-winning documentary film, Soulmate; served as an advising consultant on the star-studded "Bible Experience" audio Bible, and is currently writer/producer on Destiny Unlimited's slate of motion picture films.

Patterson also founded Destiny Outreach, Inc., a national...

Danita Patterson

Speech Topics

- ☐ Motivation
- ☐ Leadership
- ☐ Inspiration
- ☐ Education
- ☐ Business Trends
- ☐ Business Ethics