

As an international consultant, speaker, and author, Kenny J. Anderson has traveled the world discovering the Common Denominators for Success in both corporate and personal excellence.

Through extensive personal research and powerful insights taken from his interviews with successful leaders across the globe, Kenny J. Anderson has created a powerful business and leadership development program that produces measurable results for organizations and individuals worldwide.

Kenny J. Anderson is an energizing and dynamic speaker who uses motivational stories and a bit of humor to connect with and inspire audiences. Audience members learn to identify needs, apply correct principles, set goals, and implement them to achieve results. Anderson provides the tools and resources that ensure optimal performance. His no-excuses, just-results approach is contagious and empowering.

Anderson recently completed a world tour traveling 55,000 miles in 50 days to 15 countries and 6 continents interviewing leaders in the areas of business, sports, entertainment, and government. He shares this knowledge and experience to help companies and individuals achieve their own success.

Get results by creating value with vision.

Testimonials

"Kenny did a remarkable job relating to the international audience and his address resonated very well with our group. ... Kenny's remarks transcended cultural and geographical barriers and focused on the human element of equation thus ensuring that everyone took something from his remarks which benefited them individually as well as our network as a whole."

- Orlando J. Casares, Principal, First Law International (FLI).

"If you're looking for the common denominators for success, look no further. Kenny's book gives a blueprint for high achievement that anyone can follow. Follow these steps and you'll reap the rewards!"

- Noah St. John, Author of The Secret Code of Success.

Kenny J. Anderson

Speech Topics

- Peak Performance
- Motivation
- Life Balance
- Leadership
- Innovation
- Business Strategy

