

Dr. Anil K. Gupta is widely regarded as one of the world's leading experts on strategy, globalization and entrepreneurship. He is ranked by Thinkers50 as one of the world's "most influential living management thinkers" and has been named by The Economist as one of the world's "superstars" in a cover story on "Innovation in Emerging Economies." He is one of only 3 professors in the world to have been elected by his peers as a Lifetime Fellow of all three of the most prestigious bodies in the field - Academy of Management, Strategic Management Society, and Academy of International Business, with a combined membership of over 25,000 scholars worldwide.

Anil's other honors include the "Best Professor in Strategic Management" award from CMO Asia, recognition by BusinessWeek as an Outstanding Faculty in its Guide to the Best B-Schools, induction into the Academy of Management Journals' Hall of Fame, and listing by Management International Review as a "North American Superstar" for research in strategy and organization. He is also a regular participant at the World Economic Forum summits including the annual meeting in Davos and the regional meetings in China, India, and the Middle East. He is also a member of the Forum's Global Agenda Council on Emerging Multinationals.

Anil's newest book - The Silk Road Rediscovered: How Indian and Chinese Companies are Becoming Globally Stronger by Competing in Each Other's Markets - will be published by Wiley in April 2014. His earlier book - Getting China and India Right (Wiley, 2009) - received the 2009 Axiom Book Awards' Silver Prize as one of the world's two best books on globalization/international business and was short-listed for the Asia Society's Annual Bernard Schwartz Book Award...
