

In 1996 Josh Davis made history by becoming the only man in any sport from any nation at the Atlanta Olympic Games to win 3 gold medals. With a passion for representing our country, Josh returned to the Olympics in Sydney in 2000 where he was elected Captain of the USA Men's swim Team. He went on to break the American record three times in his event the 200 meter free-style and won two silver medals at the 2000 Sydney Games. After 2 Olympics and 5 medals, Josh has established himself as ambassador for the sport of swimming and is pioneering the road for the next generation of professional swimmers. He has taken his years of experience and success and shares his tips as a motivational speaker. Josh is the co-founder of USA Swim Clinics, LLC a company that provides swimming education through swim clinics and personal interaction with Olympic swimmers. Josh is currently the head Men and Women's Swim Coach at Oklahoma Christian University.

Testimonials

Josh, and his wonderful message, were well-received by our guests last night. I don't believe we could have asked for a better message and it was delivered so well. He appealed to all ages. Please send him our message of gratitude for sharing a part of his journey with us here at Northwestern.

Josh Davis is an exceptional swimmer as attested by his Olympic Medals. But more than that he is an outstanding person who has had a major impact on the lives of many young people through his speeches and appearances. I have seen young and old alike hang on every word Josh says as he relates his story and encouragement to all. He is an outstanding athlete, broadcaster and motivational speaker who has the God given ability to make a difference in peoples lives. I am honored and blessed to have worked with Josh on many projects, from broadcasting to special events, and would not hesitate to have Josh as a featured speaker no matter what the event.
