Testimonials

“Corey was a fantastic speaker for the Virginia Society of Association Executives (VSAE). His presentation was fresh, relevant, and clearly presented. In fact, one member said it was the presentation he had been waiting to hear for years. And from a staff standpoint, Corey was great to work with leading up to the event. He was responsive and it was clear he paid attention to the audience. We are unique at VSAE and he was flexible to create a presentation to fit our needs. I would certainly recommend him to anyone looking for a presenter on social media.”

Engaging, knowledgeable, thoughtful, well-prepared and fun ... just a few words to describe our keynote speaker for AENC's 2015 Technology Conference. From his first minutes at the podium to his last, Corey maintained attendees' attention with a fast-paced, focused stream of valuable content and tips for social media success. Recognizing the range of social media experience in the room, Corey tailored his presentation to ensure there were takeaways for all. One of our most popular presenters. We will definitely be asking Corey back in the future.
