Testimonials

☐ Grant, I personally want to take a moment now to Thank You very much for your contribution to the sales industry and assisting someone like myself. Tomorrow will be the first day in my new position as national field sales trainer for United Laboratories Inc. (We specialize in Earth Smart/Bio Based Chemicals) traveling to Sioux Falls, SD. I can honestly say since coming across your materials a year and a half ago it has played a major role in where I am at today. As Jim Rohn put it; 'Work harder on yourself than you do on your job, you will have more value to the market place.' And with your books I went from a measly $28k to my now $50k salary + commission position in one year. My goal this year is $120k and the sky's the limit from there. I am 26 years old with no more than an associate's degree, from a middle class family like yourself. I aspire to continuously 10X every aspect of my life and breakout of this mental prison called the middle class and you've certainly given me the key to the lock that I will be sure to spread throughout my trainings this year to others. Happy New Year! I look forward to seeing all you have in store this year...☐
