

Carol Rollie Flynn is Managing Principal at Singa Consulting, a professional services firm that provides security, cyber-security, intelligence, leadership coaching, and training services to the private sector and governments. A frequent keynote speaker for public and private sector groups and organizations, Ms. Flynn is a 30-year veteran of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) where she held senior executive positions including Director of the CIA's Leadership Academy, Director of the Office of Foreign Intelligence Relationships, Executive Director of the CIA Counterterrorism Center, Chief of Station in major posts in Southeast Asia and Latin America, and Clandestine Operations Officer in Africa and Southeast Asia. She attained a rank of Senior Intelligence Service-04 (SIS-04), equivalent to a three star general when officially interacting with the U.S. military. She has extensive experience in intelligence, security, and crisis leadership.

Ms. Flynn is also an adjunct Associate Professor at Georgetown University's McCourt School of Public Policy and Georgetown's Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service where she teaches graduate seminars on Intelligence and National Security. She serves as Adjunct Staff at Rand Corporation and is a senior affiliate at the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS). A member of the Council on Foreign Relations and a senior fellow at the Foreign Policy Research Institute, Ms. Flynn has a Bachelor of Arts degree from Wellesley College and a Masters of Science in Cyber Security from University of Maryland University College. She has also completed executive leadership programs at Duke University, and the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University. She is an Associate Cer...

Carol Rollie Flynn

Speech Topics

- Technology
- Safety
- Politics & Current Events
- Management
- Leadership
- Fraud Prevention

