

Dan Dierdorf, a three-time Emmy nominee, who has distinguished himself nationally as one of the top announcers in the industry, is in his seventh year as an expert commentator on ABC's NFL Monday Night Football. Dierdorf is in his fifth year as the blow-by-blow announcer for ABC Sports' coverage of boxing. Dierdorf, a former NFL All-Pro tackle, who joined CBS Sports as a play-by-play announcer for NFL telecasts in 1985 before switching to color analysis in 1986, has extensive broadcasting experience. He has been a sportscaster for KMOX-Radio in St. Louis in a variety of capacities for the past 17 years, and most recently has been the full-time host of KMOX's daily two-hour sports talk show, Sports Open Line. During a stellar 13-year career with the St. Louis Cardinals (1971-1983), Dierdorf was named all-pro six times, was selected as the NFL's top offensive lineman three times, and was voted to the NFL Team of the Decade for the 1970s. 901-754-9404.

Dan Dierdorf

Speech Topics

- ☐ Sports
- ☐ Motivation