

Ivory Dorsey is President/Founder of an Atlanta based Speaking, Training, and Consulting firm helping organizations and individuals respond to the challenge of change. Her firm is most noted for the customized approach to training and the authenticity of approach to sensitive areas such as teambuilding, leadership, and awareness training. In this capacity, Ivory serves a diverse clientele including Fortune 500 companies, progressive small and medium sized companies, local, state, and federal governments, professional associations, and a host of other progressive organizations and individuals.

As an independent contractor since 1984, Ivory has witnessed unprecedented change in the American workplace. Competition is driving the way we do business and we must govern ourselves accordingly. She believes that Universal Appeal is the only real competitive strategy to be undertaken by individuals and organizations if we are to be competitive. Ivory is a multi-dimensional nationally known speaker, trainer, author and facilitator bringing broad-based expertise derived from more than 20 years of diverse assignments. Ivory's background includes 10 years with Xerox Corporation in Houston and Dallas, Texas, as well as Atlanta. Prior to Xerox, Ivory was a business education teacher, and a support professional.

Ivory is a standing guest host of a local Atlanta radio talk show, and also to her credit, she has hosted a show entitled: "Compelling Realities in the Changing Workplace," broadcast from Providence, R.I. Ivory is an active leader in numerous professional organizations. She is a member of the National and Georgia Speakers Association, the American Society of Training and Development, the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, Leadership Atlanta, etc. S...

Ivory Dorsey

Speech Topics

- Personal Growth
- Overcoming Adversity
- Diversity
- Change

Testimonials

"I was absolutely delighted with your presentation. Your message delivered exactly what we asked of you. You took the time to find out what we wanted and then did a wonderful job of tailor-making the presentation. I really enjoyed your stage presence and delivery style. The way you use your voice and body language to underscore your message really adds tremendously to the presentation."

- Canada Life.

"Our people have, to the person, sung high praise for you and your message. You had a remarkable effect on them, and our Senior Leaders were awed by your positive impact. Thank you from all of us."

- Cox Cable.