Testimonials

I saw a powerful way to continue to deliver shareholder results in the long run, while looking after our clients and colleagues. Using the language I learned during the program, I now feel “aligned” and in a much better place to lead an organisation through uncertain times.

- Regional CEO, HSBC Latin America, HSBC.

This was about finding solutions to existing problems, removing barriers, understanding and aligning the organisation, rather than producing more work. I'd like to thank Javier and his team for their contribution to my leadership team.

- Executive Vice-President, Shell E&P.
