

For more than three decades, Robb Thompson has inspired people around the world to live their dreams in business, life and in their relationships. His principles of excellence have improved the lives of tens of thousands, saving marriages, resurrecting careers and inspiring those burdened with frustration, despair or anxiety to achieve previously unimaginable heights.

Robb is also a recognized authority on relationship building, personal development and successful leadership in the business world. Robb shares the little known but easily understood principles for success in small businesses or the largest corporate environments. His principles form the foundation for his conferences, training seminars and coaching sessions.

He is an in-demand speaker who travels the world coaching, training and mentoring entrepreneurs, senior executives, sales organizations and visionaries in the non-profit sector. His high-energy, soul-touching coaching sessions leave attendees energized, confident and more disciplined, prepared to execute at new levels of performance for lasting excellence.

Robb is also a philanthropist and humanitarian. Through his efforts and the work of the organizations he founded or advises, tens of thousands of poor, sick, hungry or suffering men, women and children have been helped in Uganda, Russia, India, Puerto Rico, Guatemala, Mexico and Haiti. Whether it is medical or dental care, education, food, shelter and clothing in a crisis, or supporting the efforts of other organizations, Robb and his team are working every day to impact the lives of those most in need.

Long before the 2008 economic crisis revealed the integrity gap in Washington, the banks and on WallStreet, Robb was traveling the world explainin...

Robb Thompson

Speech Topics

- Psychology / Relationships
- Personal Growth
- Leadership
- Coaching / Mentoring
- Business Performance

