

Vinh Giang gained the entrepreneurial spirit and mindset from his parents, who fled Vietnam to Australia in 1981 and went on to start multiple successful businesses. His father's belief that "life is a miracle" inspired Vinh to see the possibilities in his own life. Today, he travels the world, teaching communication skills and engaging audiences with energy and flair.

As a college student, Vinh struck out on his own to start an online business teaching magic. As founder of Encyclopedia of Magic and CEO of Luminary Productions, Vinh combines the two biggest passions of his life: teaching and magic. As a magician, Vinh partnered with other performers to create fun and award-winning shows. His team's performances won multiple awards at the Adelaide Fringe Festival, one of the world's largest art events.

Using the themes of perspective, empowerment, goal setting, and positive mindset, he encourages others to believe in the possibility of positive change in their lives and business ventures. Vinh teaches professionals to re-imagine their approach to communication. "Don't be so attached to who you are in the present, give the future version of you a chance," he points out, and then proceeds to teach us how to amplify the best parts of who we are.

Testimonials

"You had everyone in awe. It didn't matter who I talked to... participants, coaches, support staff, AV crew, leaders, and our team (and likely any creature that was present) shared how impactful your presentation was. Thank you for sharing "YOU". We built something EPIC together. The feedback is overwhelmingly positive and our team's inbox and Teams channel is pouring over with the kudos and you are a large part of that. In fact we received a score of 4.8 out of 5.0 on a question "I would recommend this event to future Microsoft Aspire participants. We have never gotten that score. One quote at the end of the session hit me positively and emotionally. He shared "I came alone, and am leaving with a family". Let that sink in... you are a part of that family and created that environment. You poured yourself into the presentation and were gracious enough to connect with them over lunch. You are very special Vinh. You make connections and you make people believe in not only you... but more importantly themselves. You have created fans and myself and our team now wants you at every single one of our events in the future."

"Vinh Giang was gracious, kind and really "wowed" our audience. It was excellent. From the point of arrival to his departure he was so incredibly enthusiastic and presentation resonated with the audience. He had a 30+ minute meaningful conversation with approximately 1/3 of the group afterward."
