

Born in Liverpool, England, Peter Gamwell is the co-author, with Jane Daly, of The Wonder Wall: Leading Creative Schools and Organizations in an Age of Complexity, Corwin Press (2017), foreword by Sir Ken Robinson, and Thinker, Learner, Dreamer, Doer: Innovative Pedagogies for Cultivating Every Student's Potential, Corwin Press (2022), foreword by Yong Zhao. In addition to these books, Peter has written numerous chapters for edited books, journal articles, and blogs. Peter believes that if we can identify and foster the correct balance of conditions through our learning environments, then we will maximize the opportunity to cultivate the seeds of brilliance and the creative potential that lie in everyone - adults and children alike.

An insightful, entertaining and knowledgeable speaker and consultant, Peter brings decades of academic research, as well as practical experience and knowledge from all levels of the education system. Through his unique and inspiring keynotes, workshops, books, YouTube channel and website, he explores learning, leadership, and innovation, and their impact on individual and organizational well-being and culture. Peter has worked across Canada and throughout the world, showing students, educators, administrators, schools, school districts, companies, and policy makers how to foster vibrancy and achieve transformational and innovative cultures of learning.

Understanding a powerful truth Peter's philosophy is simple: the health and prosperity of any organization is directly proportional to the manner in which it values its people; affords them autonomy to make decisions; and gives them creative rein. This vision and pr...
