During these difficult and unusual times of COVID-19, our company was looking to organize a fun and unique event for both our staff and clients who many were stuck at home, or in need of a positive distraction. The Incredible Boris and his platform provided us with exactly what we were hoping for and more! We were able to collaborate and come up with a great interactive event which was made available by a live webinar presentation. The focus of the presentation was to provide our audience with tools and takeaways to help improve both their mental health and their overall well-being. The event was a great success with a lot of positive feed back from those who participated.
