

As Founder and CEO of TJF Career Modeling LLC, Tara Jaye Frank helps leaders, groups, and companies define their vision and develop strategies to advance their culture and leadership goals.

A sought-after thought leader and writer on cultural intelligence, Tara Jaye has spoken across the country on topics such as vision, inclusion as a business driver, emotional intelligence, and advancing women.

Her first leadership book, Say Yes: A Woman's Guide to Advancing Her Professional Purpose, was written as a practical guide to crafting a career leaders can believe in and achieve.

PHILOSOPHY

Good work gets done with planning and execution. Great work gets done on purpose—the path to higher levels of engagement, and the key to vibrant leadership and breakthrough results.

THOUGHT LEADERSHIP

Consultant. Speaker. Coach. Women's leadership trainer. Multicultural expert. Diversity and inclusion innovator. Creative problem-solver.

EXPERIENCE

People leadership. Brand development. Business management. Change management. Creative product development. Consumer goods. Retail. Multicultural strategy. Innovation.

EXPERTISE

Organizational and experience design. Leadership, team and program development. Content creation and curation. Consumer and marketplace insight. Public speaking and facilitation. Storytelling.

Testimonials

“So many of us were energized by Tara's remarks and are reflecting on how we will courageously commit to transformation!”

- Customer.

“I want Tara to be my best friend! She was filled with energy, great examples, thought-provoking exercises and tangible next steps.”

- Customer.

Tara Jaye Frank

Speech Topics

- Women's Motivational
- Women in Business
- Vision
- Teambuilding
- Personal Growth
- Motivation

