

George Brooks is the Americas Leader of People Advisory Services for Ernst & Young LLP (EY) and leads a world class team of over 3,000 professionals serving clients across the Americas. With over 30 years of international consulting experience, George has earned a reputation as one of the foremost innovators and thought leaders in the Human Resources service sector.

Driven by his distinctive vision, tireless work ethic and deep commitment to people, George led the transformation of EY's former Human Capital business model into a vastly modernized, more robust and technologically savvy Americas People Advisory Services (PAS) practice. With a passion for exceptional client service, George and the PAS team deliver cutting-edge capabilities and offerings to organizations across the globe.

In March 2017, George delivered a presentation entitled "Innovative Technology & Strategies for Modern Workforce & Workplace Planning" at World at Work's Future of Work Forum in Chicago.

Among George's specialty areas within People Advisory Services are Future Work Now and Global People M&A:

Future Work Now: George is a leading voice, keynote speaker and advisor on the impact of digital trends and other changes in the modern workplace and how individuals, teams and organizations can adapt by:

Changing workforce and the impact of technology on humans

Getting back to human

Impact of mind clarity on business

How to INSPIRE

Total Talent (Management)

Global Digital Leader Mindsets

Teaming ability

The New HR Function of the future

Global People M&A: George advises buyers and sellers on cross-border and multi-cultural transactions across the enti...

George Brooks

Speech Topics

- ☐ Teambuilding
- ☐ Management
- ☐ Leadership
- ☐ Inspiration
- ☐ Human Resources
- ☐ Future of Work

