Testimonials

☐ About two months ago, you had given me advice and coaching on how to increase the number of sales calls my team was entering into our CRM-Salesforce.com. My team was not using our CRM program on a consistent basis, and I also was not being consistent in my reporting and inspecting of this area of my business. You gave me the advice to "post" a weekly ranking of the number of sales calls each sales rep was making, and to be consistent with my postings. I followed your advice exactly like you had suggested, and it worked! My team has made a significant improvement in their CRM compliance and the number of sales calls they enter on a daily basis. I wanted to personally thank you for advice and I appreciate your help to the Sales Community."

☐ I just wanted to tell you that Warren hit a major home run this week; I've received so much positive feedback already about his presentation in person and via e-mail from attendees. A couple said that he was the best speaker they had ever seen. Soon, I'll be looking at where else we can slate Warren this year. San Diego or New York might be possibilities, so I'll get back to you soon."
