Testimonials

"Our members loved his talk! David DeLong's presentation, "Building Tomorrow's Workforce in Today's Economy", was a favorite at our Spring membership meeting. David is without a doubt one of the hardest working speakers I have ever worked with. He took the time to interview several members in the weeks before the meeting to customize the program and make it even more meaningful for attendees. If you're looking for an excellent workforce speaker for your next event, look no further than David DeLong."

- Dan Walker, Managing Director Industrial Fasteners Institute.

"Dave DeLong created tremendous buzz among our members with his keynote talk on "Accelerating Leadership Development" at our Annual International Conference. Executives were talking all week about his practical ideas for managing a diverse workforce and identifying potential skills gaps in their organization. Our board was thrilled that we chose such an engaging speaker for this meeting. The pre-interviews Dave did with some of our leaders produced an impressively customized program. It was great working with Dave."
