

Eric Sheninger is a Senior Fellow and Thought Leader on Digital Leadership with the International Center for Leadership in Education (ICLE). Prior to this he was the award-winning Principal at New Milford High School. Under his leadership his school became a globally recognized model for innovative practices. Eric oversaw the successful implementation of several sustainable change initiatives that radically transformed the learning culture at his school while increasing achievement. His work focuses on leading and learning in the digital age as a model for moving schools and districts forward. This has led to the formation of the Pillars of Digital Leadership, a framework for all educators to initiate sustainable change to transform school cultures. As a result Eric has emerged as an innovative leader, best selling author, and sought after speaker. His main focus is purposeful integration of technology to facilitate student learning, improve communications with stakeholders, enhance public relations, create a positive brand presence, discover opportunity, transform learning spaces, and help educators grow professionally. Eric has received numerous awards and acknowledgments for his work. He is a CDE Top 30 award recipient, Bammy Award winner, NASSP Digital Principal Award winner, PDK Emerging Leader Award recipient, winner of Learning Forward's Excellence in Professional Practice Award, Google Certified Innovator, Adobe Education Leader, and ASCD 2011 Conference Scholar. Testimonials

▮ Eric Sheninger is a dynamic leader who I've heard speak at three separate national conferences, as well as in substantial time during my qualitative study of his digital home-school communications. Eric speaks from the heart in an authentic way, connecting the trials and tribulations of his own journey in digital leadership. His enthusiasm for teaching, learning and leadership is contagious, and I've always found myself excited about trying something new after hearing him speak. Eric is someone I'd love to bring to my district to light a fire under both traditional minds and those who are looking to move the needle. He is an expert, as well as an ongoing resource and mentor due to his level of global connectedness. ▮
