

A Stanford All-American and 5 time NFL All-Pro, Brian Holloway, excelled as the Super Bowl XX Team captain of the 1985 New England Patriots. In 1986, at age 26, Holloway as Vice President of the NFL Players, was one of the principal architects of the NFL's growth strategy that produced a landmark $1.8 Billion TV contract in 1998.

As America's #1 most requested motivational speaker, Brian Holloway has been hired by 325 Fortune 200 companies. His clients include Apple, Wal-Mart, HP, Honeywell, Bank of America, The White House, Sprint, Verizon, AT&T, State Farm, Ford, Reebok, The Million Dollar Round Table to name a few.

Brian has been a featured guest lecturer at all of the prestigious universities, including Harvard's Business School, Stanford, Yale, Princeton, Brown, Boston College, University of Florida, USC, Notre Dame North Carolina, Maryland and many more.

Billion-dollar media giants, CNN, ABC, CBS, NBC, and ESPN called on Holloway for high level new social media marketing and brand development in the billion-dollar industry of professional sports and celebrity entertainment. To book team building and motivational speaker Brian Holloway call Executive Speakers Bureau 901-754-9404.

Testimonials

"I coached Brian at Stanford, he's a champion and an All-Pro professional; Brian would do an excellent job helping companies achieve great success and sustain it."

- Bill Walsh, Hall of Fame Coach SF 49ers.

"Brian Holloway is a man of character, a champion, and a giver to his country and community. Put me down and Barbara too, we recommend Brian Holloway and are proud to be a small part of his resume."

- President George Bush.

Brian Holloway

Speech Topics

- Sports
- Overcoming Adversity
- Motivation
- Marketing
- Management
- Leadership

