

Meagan Johnson, born 1970, Gen X'er

A Generational Expert, Speaker and Author. She's a bright, funny delightfully obnoxious Generational Humorist!

What exactly is a Generational Expert?

It's somebody who understands the differences between Baby Boomers (born 1945-1964), Generation Xers (born 1965-1980) and Gen Yers also called Millennials (born 1981-2000) and how they can live, and most importantly, work together successfully without name-calling or bloodshed.

Think you've already heard everything about the multiple generations? Think again!

Our generations and the gaps that separate them are in constant flux, what worked last year probably won't work today. Anybody still using their VCR? What seemed like a perfect solution yesterday is the source of tomorrow's problem. You really need to get all those home movies put on disc! ... Wait! I mean Digital Storage. Oh No! I mean The Cloud!

The potential for collision, conflict and confusion between the generations has never been greater and the chasm is growing wider every day we ignore the problem.

Unwilling to accept standard, by-the-book generalizations, Meagan tackles the generational challenges, myths and misunderstandings head on. Meagan demonstrates to audiences, through her own experience, in depth research and program customization, that all generations have differences and strengths that go beyond mere age and appearance.

Stop complaining about the generational differences and learn from Meagan Johnson what you can do right now to make the most of all the generations.

☐ Meagan was our closing keynote speaker for our Fall Convention and I will tell you that she received some of the highest evaluations that any speaker has ever received from our members- and they can be a tough crowd! I too asked her to present on embracing a multigenerational workforce, as that is one of our greatest challenges throughout Utah's long-term care profession, and she totally nailed the topic. I purposefully put Meagan as our closing keynote speaker as I like to end our large, statewide meetings on a high note and Meagan certainly delivered! She was well prepared, engaged with my attendees and presented with a dynamic energy that kept everyone interested.
