

Tara Lipinski is the youngest Olympic, World, National and World Professional Figure Skating Champion in history. She began her domination of the sport at age fourteen when she captured the US National and World titles in 1997 and won the Champions Series Finals in both 1997 and 1998. In 1998, at the Winter Olympic Games in Nagano, Japan, Tara sealed her place in the record books and in the hearts of people everywhere when, in a stunning victory, she became the youngest person to win an individual Gold Medal in any Winter Olympic sport at the age of 15.

Following the Nagano Olympics, Tara joined the illustrious Stars on Ice tour, sponsored by Smuckers. Tara's professional interests extend beyond skating and now include acting. Tara has a wealth of TV experience, including appearances on CBS's top-rated Touched by an Angel, and a recurring role on the most popular soap opera in the country, The Young and the Restless. Her other credits include guest starring in an episode of Nickelodeon's Are You Afraid of the Dark?, as well as Veronica's Closet, Sabrina, The Teenage Witch and Early Edition.

Tara's NBC-TV special, Tara Lipinski's Hip-Hop on Ice, aired in November 2001 and her first primetime special, Tara Lipinski - From this Moment, aired in February 1999 on CBS.

Tara has two books in publication: Totally Tara: An Olympic Journey and Triumph on Ice, an Autobiography. She has also graced the cover of McCall's holiday issue and has made numerous appearances on MTV, Oprah, The Late Show with David Letterman (6 times), The Today Show, The Tonight Show with Jay Leno, Good Morning America, CBS This Morning, Live with Regis and Kathie Lee and many others.
