

Michael R. Losey, SPHR, CAE, is the Past-President and CEO of the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM). Before being named to the Society's top position in 1990, Losey served 30 years in management and executive-level positions with two New Holland and Unisys. In his 10 years as SHRM's CEO, Losey tripled the Society's membership to more than 150,000, increased revenue by six fold and increased net worth 900 percent.

Losey has been active in international human resources and is a past president of the North American Human Resource Management Association (NAHRMA) and the World Federation of Personnel Management Associations (WFPMA). These two organizations link human resource professional organizations around the world. Mr. Losey has also served on the SHRM Board of Directors and boards of the Human Resource Certification Institute, the SHRM Foundation, and the National Academy of Human Resources, which he helped established.

Since his retirement from SHRM, Mr. Losey has been consulting in the HR and association management professions, as well as writing, teaching, expert witness consulting and doing public speaking for companies and associations.

Losey holds both a Bachelor's degree and a Master's of Business Administration degree in Industrial Relations from the University of Michigan. In addition, he earned certification as a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) and is a Certified Association Executive (CAE). He has served as a subject matter expert in human resource management and association management. He is a subject matter expert and contributing author for both the SHRM human resource Learning System as well as ASAE's Essentials of the Association Management Profession. Testimonials

"At first I was concerned that having one speaker for 3 days straight would get difficult for me to stay focused - but after experiencing the 1st day with Mike Losey -- I couldn't get enough."

- Audience Member.

"Mike is a great presenter. He kept it going by adding class participation, added to each slide he presented, and knew when enough information was delivered. What a valuable course for any Human Resource Professional."
