

Sports Illustrated calls Roger Crawford "One of the most accomplished physically challenged athletes in the world."

After realizing tremendous success on center court as a Division 1 athlete, he took his talents to center stage and became a motivational speaker. Roger's transformational message gives organizations the ability to decrease excuses, increase results, and break through self-imposed limitations. His remarkable life story is a powerful example that "Challenges are inevitable; defeat is optional." Roger's achievements include:

- host of the weekly feature "Motivational Mondays with Roger Crawford," which can be seen worldwide on Tennis Channel
- recipient of the prestigious ITA Achievement Award, presented by the International Tennis Hall of Fame
- inducted into the National Speakers Association Hall of Fame
- member of the Hall of Fame for People with Disabilities (along with fellow honorees such as Christopher Reeve, Helen Keller, and former President Franklin Delano Roosevelt)

He's been featured on many national television programs and publications, including:

- Good Morning America
- Monday Night Football
- The Today Show
- The Wall Street Journal
- Men's Fitness
- Fast Company
- Tennis Magazine

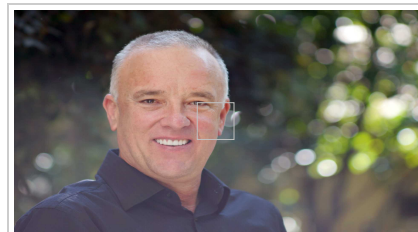

Roger is also a bestselling author whose books have been translated into 17 different languages. His most recent book Think to Win, The Power of Possibility Thinking helps readers embrace change, improve their mindset, and achieve breakthrough performances.

Testimonials

"Your message was fabulous. I have always been a fan of positive thinking. In fact, my favorite scripture verse is Philippians 4:13 which states, 'I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me' Being positive is always better than being negative. Keep telling your story. It is inspiring. You have found your gift and thank you for sharing it. I too hope we cross paths again. I have contacts in every state. I will be glad to recommend you to any of our State School Board Associations. Our national conference is this April in San Diego. Perhaps you can come by. Thank you again."

- Kentucky School Board Assn..

"Words and phrases like 'outstanding,' 'phenomenal,' 'very inspirational,' and 'the best' are consistently used by our attendees when describing your talk...your energy, professionalism, and humor enabled you to easily connect...your message of resiliency is appropriate for any group."

- Nike.
