

Dr. Jerry Patterson is a humorist, philosopher, and a shrewd observer of the business of living. He brings unique warmth, wit, and wisdom to the issues facing individuals, families, and organizations. With genuine vision and remarkable clarity, Jerry puts his finger on the fundamental element of success: the way we choose to view ourselves and those around us. He offers practical analyses and hilariously accurate observations that have captivated audiences through out the world. He has been described as lighthearted, richly detailed, highly personal and, at the same time, universally appealing to people of all backgrounds and of all ages.

Programs: Buckets N' Dippers, Mamma N' Them, How to Barbecue a Possum, A Cabbage or a King?, Reaching Out and Reaching In, The Kids Beyond the Chaos, There's Nothing New About Change, Strategic Planning for Health Care Managers, TQM in Health Care.

Dr. Jerry Patterson

Speech Topics

- ☐ Humor
- ☐ Healthcare
- ☐ Change
- ☐ Attitude

