

Billy Riggs, CSP - the World's first and only Dis-Illusionist blends world class illusions, spellbinding communication and ground breaking content to create an experience found nowhere else. His blend of magic and motivation has benefits that go well beyond just its initial dis-illusioning content. In each of his life changing presentations featuring spectacular magic, uproarious humor and paradigm-shifting messages, Billy Riggs helps bring perception and reality together, dispelling crippling illusions while propelling managers and employees toward explosive success. He connects with virtually every audience with his down to earth manner and keen insights into human personality. Sharing this philosophy for over 20 years to more than one million people on five continents, Billy has earned the prestigious CSP designation. Magnetically drawing people to himself and motivating them with the power of vision, Billy is a consummate self-directed leader with more than ten years of experience as a founder and CEO. Billy understands the value of human potential and the need to increase performance, revolutionize customer service and achieve solid, sustained growth. Because Billy's powerful presentations translate from the business world to everyday relational and personal experiences, he leaves each audience amazed, informed and excited about life.

Clients who have experienced Billy's mesmerizing, humorous and motivational illusions include: Georgia Pacific, GTE, Poulan, IBM, Amway, Maytag, Hyatt Hotels, DuPont, American Association of Airport Executives, and Association of School Board Officials, among others.

Testimonials

"The keynote delivered by Billy [Riggs] was great. He had a clear and simple message and the comedy and magic associated with the delivery were well received."

- Assistant Director, Old Dominion University.

"Billy Riggs is a true professional. He is a professional illusionist who is definitely a first rate entertainer. But he's also a professional speaker, a talented and articulate communicator who says what he says really well. But most of all he's a professional human being who really wants to help. That's why people benefit from his message."
