

Since 1983, speaker-author-coach Karen Susman has inspired audiences by offering creative strategies for assessing and effectively coping with any personal or professional situation. Among the organizations that have benefited from her mix of humor and practical content are the American Society of Association Executives, NBC Entertainment, Burger King, and the National League of Cities. Karen's program topics include humor at work, life balance, networking, presentation skills and building community involvement. To book Karen Susman call Executive Speakers Bureau at (901) 754-9404.

Karen Susman

Speech Topics

- Time Management
- Life Balance
- Humor
- Communication Skills

Testimonials

"You got us to follow a networking plan that is sure to pay off."

- American Express Tax and Business Services.

"...a great deal of food for thought presented with energy, enthusiasm and humor...just what we needed!"

- American Council of Engineering .

