

The Three Waiters involves three talented performers hoaxing and infiltrating your event as 'real waiting staff. The Three Waiters is not a wacky waiters show but, in fact, quite the opposite. The show provides sophisticated, high quality entertainment made up of some of the best performers that opera and music theatre have to offer.

The structure and content of The Three Waiters suits a wide spectrum of audience tastes by taking away the seriousness often associated with opera and adding an element of fun, spontaneity and surprise. With repertoire consisting of arias made famous by The Three Tenors along with well-known songs from popular musicals, The Three Waiters has proven equally successful to audiences of football players, auto-mechanics through to the most discerning opera buffs, high-end corporate executives and Heads of State.

Subtly, the performers infiltrate the function. They work as waiters and are dressed the same as the other waiters. The audience is given no clue of what is to come. Over a period of time, to the surprise of the guests, an unexpected story unfolds taking the audience through a very amusing, sophisticated show a la The Three Tenors.
