

Alan Weiss is the founder and president of Summit Consulting Group, Inc. He has published over 300 articles in the fields of strategy, innovation, leadership, ethics, diversity, and interpersonal relationships. He is co-author of The Innovation Formula, and author of Managing for Peak Performance, Making It Work, and Million Dollar Consulting. He appears regularly on radio and television interview programs to discuss productivity and quality. Success Magazine has cited him in an editorial devoted to his work as a worldwide expert in executive education. Alan Weiss is one of those rare people who can say he is a consultant, speaker and author and mean it. His consulting firm, Summit Consulting Group, Inc. has attracted clients such as Merck, Hewlett-Packard, GE, Mercedes-Benz, State Street Corporation, Times Mirror Group, The Federal Reserve, The New York Times Corporation, and over 500 other leading organizations. He has served on the boards of directors of the Trinity Repertory Company, a Tony-Award-winning New England regional theater, Festival Ballet, and chaired the Newport International Film Festival.

His speaking typically includes 30 keynotes a year at major conferences, and he has been a visiting faculty member at Case Western Reserve University, Boston College, Tufts, St. John's, the University of Illinois, the Institute of Management Studies, and the University of Georgia Graduate School of Business. He has held an appointment as adjunct professor in the Graduate School of Business at the University of Rhode Island where he taught courses on advanced management and consulting skills. He once held the record for selling out the highest priced workshop (on entrepreneurialism) in the then-21-year history of New York City's Learning Annex. His P...
